DEFENCE OF INDIA RULE.

Control & winding up of certain organisations.

27A.(1) If the Central Government or the Provincial Government is satisfied with respect to any organisation either -

(a) that it is subject to foreign influences or control; or

(b) that the persons in control thereof have, or have had, associations with persons concerned in the Government of, or sympathies with the system of Government of, any State at war with His Majesty, or have been conspiring to assist any such State, and in either case that there is danger of the utilisation of the organisation for purposes prejudicial to the defence of British India, the public safety, the maintenance of public order, the efficient prosecution of war, or the maintenance of supplies and services essential to the life of the community, that Government may by notified order direct that this rule shall apply to that organisation.

(2) If the Central Government or the Provincial Government is satisfied that any organisation is engaged, in succession to any organisation to which this rule applies, in activities substantially similar to those formerly carried on thereby, that Government may by notified order direct that this rule shall apply to that organisation.

(3) No person shall -

(a) manage or assist in managing any organisation to which this rule applies;

(b) promote or assist in promoting a meeting of any members of such an organisation, or attend any such meeting in any capacity;

(c) publish any notice or advertisement relating to any such meeting;

(d) invite persons to support such an organisation; or

(e) otherwise in any way assist the operations of such an organisation.

(4) The provisions of sections 17A to 17E of the Criminal Law Amendment Act, 1908, shall apply in relation to an organisation to which this rule applies, as they apply in relation to an unlawful association;

Provided that all powers and functions exercisable by the Provincial Government under the said sections as so applied shall be exercisable also by the Central Government.

(5) If any person contravenes any of the provisions of this rule, he shall be punishable with imprisonment for a term which may extend to seven years, or with fine, or with both.

PRESS NOTE.

Government already possess, under the Criminal Law Amendment Act, powers to proceed against associations which in their opinion interfere with the administration of the law, or the maintenance of law and order, or constitute a danger to the public peace. Such an association may be declared unlawful, whereupon all its activities become illegal and action can be taken against its funds and property.

2. Government have not hitherto possessed similar powers to proceed against any organisation which they consider to be working in the interests of the enemy and whose activities they hold to be prejudicial to the defence of British India or the efficient prosecution of the war. They have accordingly added to the Defence of India Rules the new rule 27A which was published to-day. This new Rule contains provisions closely parallel to those of a similar

Regulation

Regulation in the United Kingdom and also includes certain powers that may be used against unlawful associations under the Criminal Law (Amendment) Act.
